Different disciplines /Team members (Staffs and Contractors) have been participated in such success(Engineering/Production/Operations/Logistics/Marine Operations/ HSSE). Thanks for All.

As we will continue progressing on the reporting and the results which is very important phase, I am sure there will be many lessons learnt to share with each other's to improve future works.

Please share my thanks with anyone you think that he has participated and I forget to copy him in my email.

Best Regards
